

Title II, Part A Overview and Allowable Use of Funds

Program Purpose

Authorized under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), as amended by the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Title II, Part A is intended to improve teacher and leader quality and focuses on preparing, training, and recruiting high-quality teachers and principals. Title II, Part A provides grants to state educational agencies (SEAs) and subgrants to local educational agencies (LEAs) to:

- 1. increase student achievement consistent with the challenging state academic standards;
- 2. improve the quality and effectiveness of teachers, principals, and other school leaders;
- 3. increase the number of teachers, principals, and other school leaders who are effective in improving student academic achievement in schools; and
- 4. provide low-income and minority students greater access to effective teachers, principals, and other school leaders.

The Title II, Part A program places a major emphasis on teacher quality as an integral factor in improving student achievement and is designed to increase the number of highly effective teachers and principals.

Eligible Staff

Title II, Part A funds can be used to support:

- Teachers
- Principals
- Other School Leaders
- Paraprofessionals

Transferability

Under ESSA, LEAs can transfer up to 100 percent (100%) of Title II funds into:

- Title I, Part A Improving Basic Programs
- Title I, Part C Migrant
- Title I, Part D Neglected and Delinquent
- Title III, Part A English Language Acquisition, Language Enhancement, and Academic Achievement
- Title IV, Part A Student Support and Academic Enrichment
- Title V, Part B Rural and Low-Income Schools (RLIS)

Equitable Services to Private Schools

Title II, Part A equitable service must be provided to all state-approved, non-profit private schools within LEA boundaries that have chosen to participate as indicated on the annual private school survey and the equitable services section of the Consolidated Funding Application (CFA). Requirements include:

- The LEA must contact the eligible private school for timely and meaningful consultation to determine the professional development needs of its teachers.
- The LEA cannot simply offer private school educators to attend LEA-sponsored professional development activities.

• The LEA must remain in control of the funds (no money may go directly to the private school).

For more information on Title II, Part A equitable services visit ePlan > TDOE Resources > Equitable Services to Non-Public / Private Schools Information & Documents > ESSA Non-Public/Private Schools Information & Documents. Resources include needed intent and affirmation forms as well as guidance focused specifically on Title II, Part A equitable services.

Defining Professional Development

ESSA § 8101(42) defines "professional development," specifically noting that the professional development activities are sustained (not stand-alone, 1-day, or short term workshops), intensive, collaborative, jobembedded, data-driven, and classroom-focused. Additionally, when using Title II, Part A funds for professional development and class size reduction, an SEA may require an LEA to only use Title II, Part A funds on evidence-based activities, to the extent that the State determines evidence is reasonably available. [ESEA § 2103(b)(3)(D-E)]. More information about the requirements around evidence-based interventions in ESSA can be found in ePlan > TDOE Resources > ESSA Information, Guidance, PPTs, & Webinars > Evidence for ESSA.

Allowable Use of Funds

Title II, Part A eligible expenditures should be determined based on needs identified by LEA and stakeholders. Under ESEA §§ 2101(d)(3) and 2102(b)(2-3), LEAs must engage in meaningful consultation with a broad range of stakeholders, and private schools as required by ESEA § 8501, and must have a process in place to use data to continually update and improve activities supported under this part.

Title II, Part A offers LEAs the flexibility to design and implement a wide variety of activities that can help meet the individual needs of educators based on educator practice and student development. Professional development opportunities support the development of all school personnel including teachers, paraprofessionals, principals, and other school leaders and may be individualized to effectively support new and early career educators to advance their professional practice and improve their ability to produce positive student outcomes including the following:

High Quality Professional Development

- The implementation of high-quality, personalized, evidence-based professional development for teachers, paraprofessionals, instructional leadership teams, principals, or other school leaders that is focused on improving teaching and student development. Activities may include training teachers, paraprofessionals, principals, or other school leaders to:
 - Effectively integrate technology into curricula and instruction,
 - Use data to improve student achievement (ensuring individual student privacy under FERPA),
 - Effectively engage parents, families, and community partners and coordinate services between school and community,
 - Help all students develop the skills essential for development readiness and academic success,
 - Develop policy with school, local educational agency, community, or State leaders, and
 - Participate in opportunities for experiential development through observation.

Evaluation/Support Systems

• The development of improvement of a rigorous, transparent, and fair evaluation, and support system for teachers, principals, or other school leaders that is based on evidence of student achievement and may include student growth.

Effective Teaching of English Language Learners

• The development of programs and activities that increase the ability of teachers to effectively teach English language learners.

Effective Teaching of Children with Disabilities

• The development of programs and activities that increase the ability of teachers to effectively teach children with disabilities, including children with significant cognitive disabilities.

Increased Knowledge/Ability to Teach Early Childhood

• The development and use of programs and activities that may be geared toward increasing the knowledge base of teachers, principals, or other school leaders on instruction in the early grades and on strategies to measure whether young children (up to age 8) are progressing.

Effective Instruction of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM)

• The development and provision of professional development and other comprehensive systems of support for teachers, principals, or other school leaders to promote high-quality instruction and instructional leadership in science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and computer science.

Implementation of Formative Assessments

• The training, technical assistance, and capacity-building in LEAs to assist teachers, principals, or other school leaders with selecting and implementing formative assessments, designing classroom-based assessments, and using data from such assessments to improve instruction and student academic achievement, which may include providing additional time for teachers to review student data and respond.

Supporting Students Affected by Trauma and/or Mental Illness

• The provision of in-service training for school personnel in techniques and support related to identifying and supporting students affected by trauma or mental illness.

Identification and Support of Gifted Students

• The provision of training to identify students who are gifted and talented, including high ability students who have not been formally identified for gifted education services, and implementing instructional practices that support the education of such students.

Instructional Services Provided by Libraries

• Professional development intended to improve the instructional services provided by effective school library programs.

Feedback Mechanisms to Improve Working Conditions

• The development of feedback mechanisms to improve school working conditions, including through periodically and publicly reporting results of educator support and working conditions feedback.

Career Readiness Education

• Training teachers, principals, or other school leaders on strategies to integrate rigorous academic content and provide effective career/technical education and work-based development to help prepare students for post-secondary education and the workforce.

Recruitment, Placement, and Retention of Effective Educators

- Allowable activities for LEAs to:
 - Attract the most effective educators to LEAs and the schools that need them,
 - Develop a systematic, coordinated approach to provide new and sustained leadership opportunities with additional compensation, recognition, and job-embedded professional development for teachers and administrators to advance excellent teaching and development, as well as,
 - The use of evaluation data in development, compensation, and employment decisions.

Recruiting/Retaining Effective Teachers

- The development and implementation of initiatives to assist in recruiting, hiring, and retaining effective teachers, particularly in low-income schools with high percentages of ineffective teachers and high percentages of students who do not meet the challenging State academic standards, to improve within-LEA equity in the distribution of teachers, such as:
 - Providing expert help in screening candidates and enabling early hiring.
 - Offering differential and incentive pay for teachers, principals, or other school leaders in high need academic subject areas and specialty areas, which may include performance-based pay systems.
 - Teacher, paraprofessional, principal, or other school leader advancement and professional growth, and an emphasis on leadership opportunities, multiple career paths, and pay differentiation.
 - New teacher, principal, or other school leader induction and mentoring programs that are designed to improve classroom instruction and student development and achievement, and increase the retention of effective teachers, principals, or other school leaders.
 - To promote teacher retention, Title II, Part A funds can provide additional administrative or logistical support for effective teachers to allow them to focus on their instructional practice.

Recruiting Individuals from Other Fields

• Recruiting mid-career professionals from other occupations, former military personnel, and recent graduates of institutions of higher education with records of academic distinctions who demonstrate potential to become effective teachers, principals, or other school leaders.

Reducing Class Size

• The use of Title II, Part A funds to reduce class size in grades K-3 to a level that is evidencebased, to improve student achievement through the recruiting and hiring or additional effective teachers. More information about the requirements around class size reduction (CSR) teachers can be found here.
