

Prayer Certification ePlan Instructions

The constitutionally protected prayer certification is required as a condition of receiving funds under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) § 8524b. Each local educational agency (LEA) must certify, in writing, to the Tennessee Department of Education (department) that no policy of the LEA prevents, or otherwise denies participation in, constitutionally protected prayer in public elementary and secondary schools. The LEA is required to report any instances or complaints if they have occurred. The Prayer Certification is due in ePlan by October 1, each year.
