School Demographics

Section Two:

Note: If the non-public school serves elementary and secondary school students, respond "TRUE" for both.

- Does this non-public school serve elementary school students?
- Does this non-public school serve secondary school students?

How are you defining elementary vs. secondary? K-5 for elementary and 6-12 for secondary? If a school is K-8, would they be considered elementary and secondary?

For purposes of EANS annual performance reporting in the EANS “School” reporting template:

- You should report a non-public school as only an elementary school if the school has one or more of grades K-6 and does not have any grade higher than the 8th grade.
- You should report a non-public school as only a secondary school if the school has one or more of grades 7-12 and does not have any grade lower than 7th grade.
- You should report the non-public school as both an elementary and secondary school if the school has one or more of grades K-6 and one or more of 9-12. Schools in which all students are ungraded are also classified as combined.
